

POWER OF ATTORNEY

| meeting, v                       |       | will be |  | n Saturdaymeeting, | 28/05/on | '2022 and, if Saturday | ers' ordinary gerthe quorum (m04/06/2022,my side with fu | najority) is notI appoint |
|----------------------------------|-------|---------|--|-------------------------------|---------------------|--------------------------------------|--|-------------------------------|
| to take the necessary decisions. |       |         |  |                               |                     |                                      |  |                               |
| Name and Surname:                |       |         |  |                               |                     |                                      |  |                               |
| Apartmen                         | t N°: |         |  |                               |                     |                                      |  |                               |
| Signature:                       | ;     |         |  |                               |                     |                                      |  |                               |

Note:

- 1. In accordance with article 31/5 of the Condominium Law, the owner may be represented by a proxy.
- 2. In accordance with article 31/3 of the Condominium Law, if an apartment has more than one owner, they will be represented by providing a power of attorney by one of them.
- 3. According to article 31/2 of the Condominium Law, the owner of more than one apartment has one vote for each.
- 4. The deceased owner of an apartment can be represented by a person assigned from successors.